

Central Valley Exeter, California	Central Coast Santa Paula, California	Southern California – Desert Temecula, California
Tuesday, June 27 Exeter Veterans Memorial Building 324 N. Kaweah Avenue Exeter, California 93221 Registration: 7:30 am Seminar: 8:00 am – Noon SPEAKERS AND TOPICS Greg Douhan, UCCE Citrus Advisor, and Beth Grafton-Cardwell, Ph.D. – Director of Lindcove REC and Research Entomologist, University of California, Riverside -Regional citrus update Beth Grafton-Cardwell, Ph.D. – Director of Lindcove REC and Research Entomologist, University of California, Riverside - Management strategies for Asian citrus psyllid Joe Morse, Ph.D. – University of California, Riverside - Dr. Morse’s final CRB talk in Exeter: Past and present review of Integrated Pest Management (IPM) and thoughts on the future Ed Stover, Ph.D. – USDA-ARS, Fort Pierce, Florida -Breeding citrus for HLB tolerance/resistance Carol Lovatt, Ph.D. – University of California, Riverside -Alternate bearing	Wednesday, June 28 Santa Paula Community Center 530 W. Main Street Santa Paula, California 93060 Registration: 7:30 am Seminar: 8:00 am – Noon SPEAKERS AND TOPICS Ben Faber, Ph.D., UCCE Citrus Advisor -Regional citrus update Beth Grafton-Cardwell, Ph.D. – Director of Lindcove REC and Research Entomologist, University of California, Riverside -Management strategies for Asian citrus psyllid Joe Morse, Ph.D. – University of California, Riverside -Dr. Morse’s final CRB talk in Santa Paula: Past and present review of Integrated Pest Management (IPM) and thoughts on the future Ed Stover, Ph.D. – USDA-ARS, Fort Pierce, Florida -Breeding citrus for HLB tolerance/resistance Carol Lovatt, Ph.D. – University of California, Riverside -Alternate bearing	Thursday, June 29 City of Temecula Conference Room 41000 Main Street Temecula, California 92590 Registration: 7:30 am Seminar: 8:00 am – Noon SPEAKERS AND TOPICS Gary Bender, Farm Advisor Emeritus- Subtropical Horticulture -Regional citrus update Beth Grafton-Cardwell, Ph.D. – Director of Lindcove REC and Research Entomologist, University of California, Riverside -Management strategies for Asian citrus psyllid Joe Morse, Ph.D. – University of California, Riverside -Dr. Morse’s final CRB talk in Temecula: Past and present review of Integrated Pest Management (IPM) and thoughts on the future Ed Stover, Ph.D. – USDA-ARS, Fort Pierce, Florida -Breeding citrus for HLB tolerance/resistance Carol Lovatt, Ph.D. – University of California, Riverside -Alternate bearing and late season lemon drop issues in the desert
CONTINUING EDUCATION UNITS WILL BE AVAILABLE, PENDING APPROVAL BY THE CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF PESTICIDE REGULATION.

PLEASE CALL THE CITRUS RESEARCH BOARD AT (559) 738-0246
OR EMAIL: EVENTS@CITRUSRESEARCH.ORG AT YOUR EARLIEST CONVENIENCE.
WATCH FOR MORE DETAILS AT WWW.CITRUSRESEARCH.ORG

University of California
Agriculture and Natural Resources