Stockmanship & Stewardship Clinics For Beef Producers and Livestock Handlers

Featuring Cattle Handling Expert Ron Gill

Don't miss this opportunity to:

- Increase productivity and enhance safety using low-stress cattle handling techniques.
- Discuss effective management techniques for your operation.
- Earn your Beef Quality Assurance (BQA) Certification.

All clinics conclude with a free lunch or dinner, courtesy of the host auction market. Clinics are made possible by the California Beef Council, National Cattlemen's Beef Association and participating auction markets.
