

Kern County CattleWomen

Invite you to an evening with

Dr. Frank Mitloehner

*Professor and Air Quality Specialist, Dept. of Animal Science, UC Davis
Past chairman of a Global United Nations Food & Agriculture Organization
President's Council of Advisors on Science & Technology
National Academies of Science Institute of Medicine*

Dr. Mitloehner will speak about:

- Livestock's Contributions to Climate Change: Facts and Fiction
 - Clearing the Air About Cows and Climate Change
 - Air Quality research related to Livestock Production

Topics that pertain to all in the livestock and agricultural industries

Please join us for dinner and an informative interesting evening. You won't be disappointed!

Reservations are strongly recommended.

Friday November 9, 2018 ~ 6:00 PM ~ dinner $10.00 per person

KHSD Ag Pavilion 3300 East Belle Terrace (off Mt. Vernon Ave. & Highway 58) Bakersfield, CA

For Reservations and More Information Please Call:

Debbie Hay @ 661-487-7754 or Sheila Bowen @ 661-201-5572

